

Access Statement for Mostyn Hall

Introduction:

Mostyn Hall was opened to the general public for the first time in its history in 2014, to allow access to view the fine collection of mainly family portraits and other pictures and furniture.

Pre-Arrival:

- Information on our Company website (www.mostynestates.co.uk);
- Mostyn Estates Ltd does have fax and email available as points of communication, please see the foot of this statement for contact details;
- The Hall is just located off the local No. 12 bus route near Rhewl-Mostyn, which runs every hour and we are 8 miles from either Flint or Prestatyn Railway Stations.

Arrival and Car Parking facilities:

- There is a small grassed car park, located just off the main driveway to Mostyn Hall, which is clearly signposted. All vehicles are to be parked in this designated area;
- Coaches (by appointment only) are to be parked in the farmyard area, just below the main drive;
- Toilet facilities are available in the car parking area, there are no facilities within Mostyn Hall;
- Mostyn Hall is clearly signposted from the car park, and access is via foot only over a tarmac road, which leads onto a gravel driveway;
- Wheel chairs are capable of passing over the above surfaces with caution;
- The public are advised to be cautious of farm and other vehicles in and around the vicinity;
- Disabled parking is available on the forecourt of Mostyn Hall (signposted)

Main Entrance and Reception:

- Access to the building is via 19th century door, which does have a shallow threshold leading onto stone slabs, which can be uneven in places;
- The doorway is 145cm wide;
- A volunteer will be on hand at this location to assist visitors if required;
- A charge of £5.00 per person is payable on entry, and should be made to the volunteer(s) welcoming visitors, there is no charge for children under the age of 16. We are only able to accept cash, as we do not have the facility to process card payments;
- The tour will commence at the main entrance (Great Hall) and you will be met by your tour guide;
- Please be aware of possible trip hazards throughout the tour;
- There is no portable hearing loop in the building;

Public Areas – General (Internal):

- Flooring throughout the main entrance (Great Hall) is sandstone slabs, some are uneven;
- Please be aware of possible trip hazards throughout the tour;
- Flooring in many of the rooms on the tour are timber floor boards, but carpet and rugs are in situ which avoids uneven areas throughout the route of the tour;
- Roped off areas are to be found along the route of the tour and visitors are asked not to stray into these areas;
- Lighting is mainly natural, but where there are hazards, the lights will be switched on;
- A limited number of seats are available at the main entrance, but no seating is available along the course of the tour;
- Access is available for wheel chair users at ground floor level only;

Public Areas – WC:

- These are to be found in the car park;

Outdoor Facilities:

- A small area of the garden is available including the rose garden but not beyond the roped off area;

Additional Information:

- Guide dogs are welcome. We provide a water bowl at the main entrance;
